PROPERTY CONDITION REPORTS

A property condition report detailing the condition of the premises must be completed by or on behalf of the lessor and 2 copies provided to the tenant within 7 days of the tenant moving into the premises.

If the tenant disagrees with any information contained in the property condition report, the tenant must note his or her disagreement on a copy of the property condition report and return this to the lessor or property manager within 7 days of receipt of the property condition report from the lessor. If the tenant does not give a copy of the property condition report back to the lessor, the tenant is to be taken to accept the property condition report as a true and accurate description of the condition of the premises.

A final property condition report must be completed by or on behalf of the lessor and provided to the tenant as soon as practicable but in any event within 14 days of the termination of the tenancy. The tenant must be given a reasonable opportunity to be present at the final inspection.

FORM 1AA - Residential Tenancies Act 1987 - Section 27A

RESIDENTIAL TENANCY AGREEMENT PART B

STANDARD TERMS APPLICABLE TO ALL RESIDENTIAL TENANCY AGREEMENTS

The Residential Tenancies Act 1987 and the Residential Tenancies Regulations 1989 apply to this agreement.

Both the lessor and the tenant must comply with these laws.

Some of the rights and obligations in that legislation are outlined below.

RIGHT TO OCCUPY THE PREMISES

1. The tenant has the right to exclusive occupation and quiet enjoyment of the residential premises during the tenancy. The residential premises include the additional items but do not include the exclusions noted under "RESIDENTIAL PREMISES" in Part A.

COPY OF AGREEMENT

2. The lessor or the property manager must give the tenant:
  - 2.1 a copy of this agreement when this agreement is signed by the tenant; and
  - 2.2 a copy of this agreement signed by both the lessor or the property manager and the tenant within 14 days after it has been signed and delivered by the tenant.

RENT

3. The tenant must pay rent on time or the lessor may issue a notice of termination and, if the rent is still not paid in full, the lessor may take action through the court to evict the tenant.
4. The tenant must not withhold rent because the tenant is of the view that the lessor is in breach of the agreement.
5. The lessor or property manager must not:
  - 5.1 require the tenant to pay more than 2 weeks rent in advance; or
  - 5.2 require the tenant to pay rent by post-dated cheque; or
  - 5.3 use rent paid by the tenant for the purpose of any amount payable by the tenant other than rent; or
  - 5.4 require the tenant to pay any monetary amount other than rent, security bond and pet bond.
6. The lessor or property manager must give a rent receipt to the tenant within 3 days of the rent being paid unless the rent is paid into an authorised bank or credit union account nominated by the lessor.
7. A tenancy agreement cannot contain a provision for a penalty, damages or extra payment if the tenant fails to keep to the agreement or breaches any law. If an agreement allows a reduced rent or a rebate, refund or other benefit if the tenant does not breach the agreement, the tenant is entitled to the reduction, rebate, refund or other benefit in any event.
8. Warning: it is an offence for a tenant to fail or refuse to pay any rent due under a residential tenancy agreement with the intention that the amount of such rent be recovered by the lessor from the tenant's security bond.

PAYMENT OF COUNCIL RATES, LAND TAX, WATER AND OTHER CHARGES

9. The lessor must pay all rates, taxes or charges imposed in respect of the premises under the Local Government Act 1995, the Land Tax Act 2002 or any written law under which a rate, tax or charge is imposed for water supply or sewerage services under the Water Agencies (Powers) Act 1984 (other than a charge for water consumed).
10. The lessor is responsible for any of the following contributions in respect of the premises:
  - 10.1 contributions (as defined in the Strata Titles Act 1985 section 3(1)) imposed on the owner of the premises under the Strata Titles Act 1985 section 100;
  - 10.2 contributions (as defined in the Community Titles Act 2018 section 3(1)) determined by a community corporation as the amount it requires from the owner of the premises (as a member of the community corporation) under the Community Titles Act 2018 section 88.

PUBLIC UTILITY SERVICES

11. Public utility services has the meaning given in the Land Administration Act 1997 and refers to services such as gas, electricity and water.
12. If the premises are not separately metered to measure the tenant's consumption of a public utility service at the premises and the tenant is expected to pay for his or her consumption of the public utility service, the lessor and tenant must agree in writing to an alternative method of calculating the charge to be paid by the tenant for the consumption of that public utility service.
13. The tenant must not be required to pay a charge in relation to a public utility service provided to the premises unless the charge is calculated by reference to the tenant's actual consumption of the public utility service at the premises and the tenant is given written notice of the charge.
14. If the premises are separately metered, the notice of the charge must specify –
  - 14.1 the relevant meter reading or readings; and
  - 14.2 the charge per metered unit; and
  - 14.3 the amount of GST payable in respect of the provision of the public utility service to the residential premises.
15. If the premises are not separately metered, the notice of the charge must specify –
  - 15.1 the calculation as per the agreed method; and
  - 15.2 the amount of GST payable in respect of the provision of the public utility service to the residential premises.

POSSESSION OF THE PREMISES

16. The lessor must:
  - 16.1 give the tenant vacant possession of the premises on the day on which the tenant is entitled to enter into occupation of the premises under the agreement; and
  - 16.2 take all reasonable steps to ensure that, at the time of signing this agreement, there is no legal reason why the tenant cannot occupy the premises as a residence for the term of this agreement.

TENANT'S RIGHT TO QUIET ENJOYMENT

17. The tenant is entitled to quiet enjoyment of the premises without interruption by the lessor or any person claiming by, through or under the lessor or having superior title to that of the lessor.
18. The lessor or the property manager will not interfere with, or cause or permit any interference with, the reasonable peace, comfort or privacy of the tenant in the use of the premises. The lessor or the property manager must also take all reasonable steps to ensure that the lessor's other neighbouring tenants do not interfere with the reasonable peace, comfort or privacy of the tenant in the use of the premises.

USE OF THE PREMISES BY TENANT

19. The tenant must:
  - 19.1 use the premises as a place of residence; and
  - 19.2 not use or allow the premises to be used for any illegal purpose; and
  - 19.3 not cause or permit a nuisance; and
  - 19.4 not intentionally or negligently cause or permit damage to the residential premises; and
  - 19.5 advise the lessor or property manager as soon as practicable if any damage occurs; and
  - 19.6 keep the premises in a reasonable state of cleanliness; and
  - 19.7 not cause or allow to be caused injury to the lessor, property manager or any person lawfully on adjacent premises; and
  - 19.8 not allow anyone who is lawfully at the premises to breach the terms of this agreement.
20. The tenant is responsible for the conduct or omission of any person lawfully on the premises that results in a breach of the agreement.

LESSOR'S GENERAL OBLIGATIONS FOR RESIDENTIAL PREMISES

21. In this clause, premises includes fixtures and chattels provided with the premises but does not include:
  - 21.1 any fixture or chattel disclosed by the lessor to the tenant as not functioning before the agreement was entered into; or
  - 21.2 any other fixture or chattel that the tenant could not reasonably have expected to be functioning at the time the agreement was entered into.
- 21A. The lessor must:
  - 21A.1 provide vacant possession of the premises and in a reasonable state of cleanliness and repair; and
  - 21A.2 maintain and repair the premises in a timely manner; and
  - 21A.3 comply with all laws affecting the premises including building, health and safety laws.

URGENT REPAIRS

22. Urgent repairs are defined by the Residential Tenancies Act 1987 and fall into 2 categories: repairs that are necessary for the supply or restoration of an essential service and other urgent repairs.
23. Essential services are listed in the Residential Tenancies Regulations 1989 as electricity, gas, a functioning refrigerator (if one is provided with the premises), waste water management treatment and water (including the supply of hot water). Arrangements for repairs that are necessary to supply or restore an essential service must be made with a suitable repairer within 24 hours. Other urgent repairs are those that are not necessary for the supply or restoration of an essential service, but may nevertheless cause damage to the premises, injure a person or cause undue hardship or inconvenience to the tenant. Arrangements for these repairs must be made within 48 hours.
24. In every tenancy, if the need for urgent repair arises other than as a result of a breach of the agreement by the tenant:
  - 24.1 the tenant is to notify the lessor or the property manager of the need for urgent repairs as soon as practicable; and
  - 24.2 the lessor is to ensure that the repairs are carried out by a suitable repairer as soon as practicable after that notification; and
  - 24.3 if, within 24 hours (in the case of repairs to essential services) or 48 hours (in the case of other urgent repairs), the lessor or property manager cannot be contacted, or, having notified the lessor or property manager of the need for the repairs, the lessor fails to ensure that the repairs will be carried out by a suitable repairer as soon as practicable after that notification, the tenant may arrange for the repairs to be carried out by a suitable repairer to the minimum extent necessary to effect those repairs; and
  - 24.4 if a tenant arranges for repairs to be carried out under clause 24.3, the lessor must, as soon as practicable after the repairs are carried out, reimburse the tenant for any reasonable expense incurred by the tenant in arranging for those repairs to be carried out and paying for those repairs.

LESSOR'S ACCESS TO THE PREMISES

25. The lessor, property manager or person acting on behalf of the lessor, can only enter the premises in the following circumstances:
  - 25.1 in any case of emergency;
  - 25.2 to conduct up to 4 routine inspections in a 12 month period after giving the tenant at least 7 days, but not more than and 14 days, written notice;
  - 25.3 where the agreement allows the rent to be collected at the premises where rent is payable not more frequently than once every week;
  - 25.4 to inspect and secure the premises if there are reasonable grounds to believe that the premises have been abandoned and the tenant has not responded to a notice from the lessor;
  - 25.5 carrying out or inspecting necessary repairs to or maintenance of the premises, at any reasonable time, after giving the tenant not less than 72 hours notice in writing before the proposed entry;
  - 25.6 showing the premises to prospective tenants, at any reasonable time and on a reasonable number of occasions during the period of 21 days preceding the termination of the agreement, after giving the tenant reasonable notice in writing;
  - 25.7 showing the premises to prospective purchasers, at any reasonable time and on a reasonable number of occasions, after giving the tenant reasonable notice in writing; or
  - 25.8 if the tenant agrees at, or immediately before, the time of entry;
  - 25.9 in accordance with the Residential Tenancies Act 1987 section 46(6A) and (6B).
26. There are directions within the Residential Tenancies Act 1987 which guide tenants, lessors and property managers on appropriate behaviour in relation to gaining or granting access to the premises. The following summary may assist.

REASONABLE TIME

27. Reasonable time means –
  - 27.1 between 8.00am and 6.00pm on a weekday; or
  - 27.2 between 9.00am and 5.00pm on a Saturday; or
  - 27.3 at any other time agreed between the lessor and each tenant.

REQUIREMENT TO NEGOTIATE A DAY AND TIME FOR A PROPOSED ENTRY BY THE LESSOR

28. If it would unduly inconvenience the tenant for the lessor or property manager to enter the premises as specified in a notice of an intention to enter premises on a particular day, the lessor or property manager must make a reasonable attempt to negotiate a day and time that does not unduly inconvenience the tenant.

REQUIREMENT TO GIVE TENANT NOTICE OF PROPOSED ENTRY

29. Where a lessor or property manager gives a tenant notice of an intention to enter premises on a particular day, the notice must specify the day and whether it will be before or after 12.00 p.m.

TENANT ENTITLED TO BE PRESENT

30. The tenant is entitled to be on the premises during the entry by the lessor, the property manager or any other agent acting on behalf of the lessor.

ENTRY MUST BE REASONABLE AND NO LONGER THAN NECESSARY

31. The lessor or property manager exercising a right of entry:
- 31.2 must do so in a reasonable manner; and
  - 31.2 must not, without the tenant's consent, stay or permit others to stay on the premises longer than is necessary to achieve the purpose of the entry.

LESSOR'S OBLIGATION TO COMPENSATE TENANT IF DAMAGE TO TENANT'S GOODS

32. If the lessor or property manager (or any person accompanying the lessor or property manager) causes damage to the tenant's goods when exercising a right of entry, the lessor is obliged to compensate the tenant.

MODIFICATIONS TO THE PREMISES

33. The tenant is permitted to make modifications or changes to the premises as follows:
- 33.1 Security modifications to prevent family violence – The tenant may make prescribed modifications necessary to prevent a person from entering premises in circumstances of family violence, including, installing security alarms and cameras; locks, screens and shutters on windows; security screens on doors; exterior lights; locks on gates; and pruning of shrubs and trees to improve visibility. The tenant must give the lessor written notice of their intention to make one or more of these prescribed modifications but does not need the lessor's consent. Work must be carried out by a suitable tradesperson. The tenant must provide a copy of the invoice for the work to the lessor within 14 days of the work being carried out.
  - 33.2 Furniture safety modifications – The tenant may, with the lessor's consent, attach furniture to a wall for the purpose of ensuring the safety of a child or person with a disability. The tenant must ask the lessor for consent to attach the furniture and the lessor must respond within 14 days. The lessor may only refuse consent in limited circumstances, including where the modification would disturb asbestos, the property is heritage listed or scheme by-laws do not permit the furniture to be secured. If the lessor does not respond within 14 days, consent is automatically granted.
  - 33.3 Minor modifications – The tenant may, with the lessor's consent, make a minor modification to the premises. The tenant must ask the lessor for consent to make a minor modification and the lessor must respond within 14 days. The lessor can only refuse consent in limited circumstances, including where the modification would disturb asbestos, the property is heritage listed or where a written law or scheme by-law prevents the modification. If the lessor wants to refuse for another reason, they must get the approval of the Commissioner for Consumer Protection. If the lessor does not respond within 14 days, consent is automatically granted.
- Note: A list of minor modifications is set out in the regulations and is available on the Consumer Protection website.*
34. The lessor cannot refuse consent to a modification needed to allow a person with a disability to access or use the premises if refusal would be unlawful under the Equal Opportunity Act 1984 (WA) or the Disability Discrimination Act 1992 (Cth).
35. For modifications not dealt with in clause 33 and 34 ("other modifications"):
- 35.1 If Part A lists other modifications that the tenant is allowed to make, the tenant may make those modifications after giving the lessor notice of the tenant's intention to make the modifications.
  - 35.1 If Part A allows the tenant to make other modifications with the lessor's consent, the tenant may ask the lessor for consent to make the modification and the lessor must respond within 28 days. The lessor must not unreasonably refuse consent and may impose reasonable conditions on the consent. If the lessor does not respond within 28 days, consent is automatically granted.
36. Tenant responsibilities in relation to modifications:
- 36.1 The tenant is responsible for the costs of making a modification and for maintenance of the modification.
  - 36.2 Modifications must be made taking into account the age and character of the property and in some cases must be carried out by a qualified tradesperson.
  - 36.3 At the end of the tenancy, the tenant must remove the modification and restore the premises, unless otherwise agreed with the lessor.
37. Lessor modifications – If the lessor wants to make a modification to the premises, the lessor must ask the tenant for consent and the tenant must respond within 28 days. The tenant cannot unreasonably refuse consent and may impose conditions, including a condition about when the lessor can enter the premises to carry out work. If the tenant does not respond within 28 days, consent is automatically granted.

Note: Further information about modifications, forms, timeframes and the Commissioner application process is available on the Consumer Protection website at www.dmirs.wa.gov.au/renting

LOCKS AND SECURITY DEVICES

38. The prescribed means of securing the premises are defined in the Residential Tenancies Regulations 1989. In every tenancy:
- 38.1 the lessor must provide and maintain such means to ensure the premises are reasonably secure as prescribed in the regulations; and
  - 38.2 any lock or security device at the premises must not be altered, removed or added by a lessor or tenant without the consent of the other or except in accordance with clause 38.4; and
  - 38.3 the lessor or the tenant must not unreasonably withhold the consent referred to in clause 38.2; and
  - 38.4 a tenant may alter or add any lock or other means of securing the residential premises in accordance the Residential Tenancies Act 1987 section 45(2)(a), and the tenant and lessor must comply with section 45(2)(b) and (c) in relation to copies of keys to altered or added locks or other means of securing the residential premises.

PETS

39. The tenant may keep a pet at the premises with the consent of the lessor. The lessor can only refuse consent in limited circumstances, including where a written law, local law or scheme by-law does not permit the pet. If the lessor wants to refuse for another reason, they must get the approval of the Commissioner for Consumer Protection.
40. The tenant is responsible for any nuisance or damage caused by the pet.
41. A tenant may keep an assistance animal at the premises without the consent of the lessor.
- Note: Further information about pets, relevant forms, timeframes and the Commissioner application process is available on the Consumer Protection website at www.dmirs.wa.gov.au/renting*

TRANSFER OF TENANCY OR SUB-LETTING BY TENANT

42. If the tenancy agreement allows the tenant to assign his or her interest or sub-let the premises with the lessor's consent:
- 42.1 the tenant cannot assign his or her interest or sub-let the premises without the written consent of the lessor; and
  - 42.2 the lessor must not unreasonably withhold such consent; and
  - 42.3 the lessor must not make any charge for giving such consent other than the lessor's reasonable incidental expenses.

CONTRACTING OUT

43. It is an offence to contract out of any provision of the Residential Tenancies Act 1987.

ENDING THE RESIDENTIAL TENANCY AGREEMENT

44. This residential tenancy agreement can only be terminated in certain circumstances.
45. The tenant agrees, when this agreement ends, to give vacant possession of the premises to the lessor. Before giving vacant possession to the lessor the tenant must:
- 45.1 remove all the tenant's goods from the residential premises; and
  - 45.2 leave the residential premises as nearly as possible in the same condition, fair wear and tear excepted, as at the commencement of the tenancy; and
  - 45.3 return to the lessor all keys, and other opening devices or similar devices, provided by the lessor.
46. The tenant may be liable for losses incurred by the lessor if the above requirements are not met.

ENDING A FIXED TERM AGREEMENT

47. If this agreement is a fixed term agreement it may be ended:
- 47.1 by agreement in writing between the lessor and the tenant; or
  - 47.2 if either the lessor or tenant does not want to renew the agreement, by giving written notice of termination. The notice must be given to the other party at least 30 days prior to the date on which vacant possession of the premises is to be delivered to the lessor. The notice may be given at any time up until the end of the fixed term but cannot take effect until the term ends.

ENDING A PERIODIC AGREEMENT

48. If this agreement is a periodic agreement it may be ended:
- 48.1 by agreement in writing between the lessor and the tenant; or
  - 48.2 by either the lessor or the tenant by giving written notice of termination to the other party. The notice may be given at any time. The lessor must give at least 60 days notice and the tenant must give at least 21 days notice.

ENDING A TENANT'S INTEREST IN A RESIDENTIAL TENANCY AGREEMENT BECAUSE OF FAMILY VIOLENCE

49. A tenant's interest in a residential tenancy agreement may be ended:
- 49.1 by the tenant under the Residential Tenancies Act 1987 section 60(1)(ba) if the tenant or a dependant of the tenant is, during the tenancy period, likely to be subjected or exposed to family violence; or
  - 49.2 by the tenant under the Residential Tenancies Act 1987 section 60(1)(bb) if the tenant receives a copy of a notice of a termination referred to in paragraph 41A.1 from another tenant; or
  - 49.3 by a court under the Residential Tenancies Act 1987 section 60(1)(bc) if a family violence order is in force against a tenant to protect another tenant or if the court is satisfied that the tenant has committed family violence against another tenant or their dependant during the tenancy period.

OTHER GROUNDS FOR ENDING AGREEMENT

50. The Residential Tenancies Act 1987 also authorises the lessor and tenant to end this agreement on other grounds. The grounds for the lessor include sale of the residential premises, breach of this agreement by the tenant, where the agreement is frustrated (e.g. where the premises are destroyed or become uninhabitable) and hardship. The grounds for the tenant include breach of this agreement by the lessor, where the agreement is frustrated (e.g. where the premises are destroyed or become uninhabitable) and hardship.
51. For more information, refer to the Residential Tenancies Act 1987 or contact the Department of Energy, Mines, Industry Regulation and Safety on 1300 30 40 54 or visit www.dmirs.wa.gov.au/renting.
52. Warning: It is an offence for any person to obtain possession of the residential premises without an order of the Magistrates Court if the tenant does not willingly move out (a termination notice issued by the lessor or property manager is not a court order). The court may order fines and compensation to be paid for such an offence.
53. Warning: It is an offence for a tenant to fail to provide the lessor with a forwarding address when vacating the premises.

SECURITY BOND

54. The security bond is held by the Bond Administrator.
55. The lessor agrees that if the lessor or the property manager applies to the Bond Administrator for all or part of the security bond to be released to the lessor, the lessor or property manager will provide the tenant with evidence to support the amount that the lessor is claiming.
56. The Bond Administrator can only release the security bond when it receives either:
  - 56.1 a Joint Application for Disposal of Security Bond form signed by all the parties to the tenancy agreement; or
  - 56.2 an order of the court.
57. If the parties cannot agree on how the security bond is to be dispersed, either party can apply to the Magistrates Court to have the dispute decided.
58. Warning: It is an offence for a lessor or a property manager to require a tenant to sign a Joint Application for Disposal of Security Bond form unless the residential tenancy agreement has terminated, the rent to be paid under the tenancy agreement is decreased or a pet is no longer kept at the premises, and the amount of the security bond to be paid to the tenant or lessor is stipulated on the form.

TENANCY DATABASES

59. A lessor or property manager can only list a person on a residential tenancy database if:
  - 59.1 the person is a named tenant on the residential tenancy agreement; and
  - 59.2 the residential tenancy agreement has been terminated; and
  - 59.3 the person owes the lessor a debt that is greater than the security bond or a court has made an order terminating the tenancy agreement.

NOTICES

60. A notice under this agreement must be given:
  - 60.1 in the prescribed form; or
  - 60.2 if there is no prescribed form but there is an approved form - in the approved form; or
  - 60.3 if there is no prescribed form or approved form - in writing.
61. A notice from the tenant to the lessor may be given to the property manager or the lessor's agent.
62. A notice under this agreement may be given to a person:
  - 62.1 by giving it to the person directly; or
  - 62.2 if an address for service for the person is given in the agreement - by posting it to the address for service; or
  - 62.3 if the person has agreed under Part A to the electronic service of notices - by sending the notice to the email address or facsimile number given in Part A.
63. A person may withdraw his or her consent to a notice being given to the person by email or facsimile by giving a notice to that effect to each other party to the agreement.

ADVICE, COMPLAINTS AND DISPUTES

DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY, MINES, INDUSTRY REGULATION AND SAFETY

64. The Residential Tenancies Act 1987 allows the Commissioner for Consumer Protection to give advice to parties to a residential tenancy agreement, to look into complaints and, wherever possible, help to settle them. The Department of Energy, Mines, Industry Regulation and Safety may be contacted by telephone on 1300 30 40 54 or by visiting one of the Department's offices.
65. The tenant should generally approach the lessor or property manager to solve any problem before approaching the Department of Energy, Mines, Industry Regulation and Safety. The Department's role is one of mediation and conciliation. Except for disputes about the keeping of pets and making minor modification the Commissioner cannot issue orders or make determinations in respect of disputes.

IF A DISPUTE CANNOT BE RESOLVED

66. For most disputes about keeping a pet or making a minor modification, the Commissioner may make a decision to resolve the dispute.
Note: Information about the Commissioner's dispute resolution process is available on the Consumer Protection website at www.dmirs.wa.gov.au/renting.
67. For other matters, if a dispute arises between the lessor and the tenant and the dispute cannot be resolved, either party may apply to the Magistrates Court to have the dispute decided by the court. The court can make a range of orders, including:
  - 67.1 restraining any action in breach of the agreement; and
  - 67.2 requiring a party to the agreement to perform a certain action under the agreement; and
  - 67.3 order the payment of any amount owing under the agreement; and
  - 67.4 order the payment of compensation for loss or injury.

FORM 1AA - Residential Tenancies Act 1987 - Section 27ARESIDENTIAL TENANCY AGREEMENT PART C*IMPORTANT INFORMATION*Additional terms may be included in this agreement if:

- (a) both the lessor and tenant agree to the terms; and
- (b) they do not conflict with the Residential Tenancies Act 1987, the Residential Tenancies Regulations 1989, or any other law; and
- (c) they do not breach the provisions about unfair contract terms in the Fair Trading Act 2010; and
- (d) they do not conflict with the standard terms of this agreement.

ADDITIONAL TERMS ARE NOT REQUIRED BY THE RESIDENTIAL TENANCIES ACT 1987.

HOWEVER, ONCE THE PARTIES SIGN THIS AGREEMENT, THE ADDITIONAL TERMS ARE BINDING UPON THE PARTIES UNLESS THE TERM IS FOUND TO BE UNLAWFUL.

ADDITIONAL TERMS:

1. REQUIREMENTS FOR EXISTENCE OF LEASE

- 1.1. The parties agree that there will be no binding agreement to lease the Premises and no residential tenancy agreement will have come into existence, under the Residential Tenancies Act, 1987 (Act) or otherwise, unless and until the following pre-requisites have been met:
- (a) By no later than 4.00 pm on 20/06/2025, or such later time as agreed to by the lessor's property manager:
 [**strike out whatever subparagraphs do not apply*]
 (i)* this residential tenancy agreement is signed by the tenant(s) and returned by the tenant to the lessor's property manager at the physical address or email address appearing in this lease;
 (ii)* any security bond and any pet bond required to be paid by the tenant pursuant to Part A of this residential tenancy agreement on the signing of the residential tenancy agreement are paid to the lessor's property manager; and
 (iii)* any first payment of rent required to be paid by the tenant pursuant to Part A of this residential tenancy agreement on or before the signing of the residential tenancy agreement is paid in accordance with Part A;
 and
  - (b) The residential tenancy agreement is signed by the lessor or the property manager (PROVIDED THAT if the tenant has been granted an option to enter the lease and paid an option fee, there shall be no need for the agreement to be signed by the lessor or property manager in order for a binding agreement to exist and this pre-requisite (b) shall not apply).

Note: Under the Residential Tenancy Act 1987 agreement to lease do not have to be in writing and may be entered verbally or by conduct. This clause 1 does not purport to remove the right of the parties to reach non-written agreements. However, if the parties wish to enter into an agreement on the terms set out in this form, the pre-requisites set out above must be met in order for the lease to exist.

2. THE TENANT'S OBLIGATIONS

| Rent   | 2.1. The tenant agrees to pay the Rent punctually pursuant to the provisions of Part A, on the dates for payment, without any deductions or legal or equitable set-offs. 2.2. The tenant must not fail or refuse to pay any rent due under this lease with the intention that the amount of the rent may be recovered by the lessor from the security bond. (This is an offence against Section 52 of the Act and is subject to a maximum penalty of $5,000.00).  |
| Renegotiated Fixed Term Lease (section 31B of the Act) | [Delete if inapplicable - to be used when a new lease is entered into (the new agreement) that has been the subject of a previous fixed term lease between the same parties in relation to the same premises (the former agreement)].   |
| Rent Reviews   | 2.3. Rental under this lease will be the amount stipulated under the heading "Rent" in Part A of this lease. 2.4. If this lease is a periodic tenancy, then the rent will be increased every [insert frequency of rent review] Twelve (12) months using the following Method of Rent Review [insert method A, B, C, or D as defined below]         If this lease is a fixed term tenancy agreement, then the rent will be increased on the following dates in the following manner:         The Parties agree that on the relevant rent review date(s) referred to below the rent per week during the term of this fixed term lease will be increased by the method referred to below.         Note: Any increase in rent must be no sooner than 12 months after the commencement date of this tenancy or the date of the last increase. The lessor must give to the tenant at least 60 days' notice of the increase. |

The reviewed rental cannot be less than the rental payable in the immediately preceding period.

Method of Rent Review	D	Review Date	20/06/2026
Method of Rent Review	N/A	Review Date	N/A
Method of Rent Review	N/A	Review Date	N/A
Method of Rent Review	N/A	Review Date	N/A

Insert A, B, C or D for the Method of Rent Review.

- A. fixed increase of $ N/A per week
- B. Consumer Price Index (Perth All Groups) ("CPI")
- C. N/A % increase of the rent payable on the day immediately prior to the Review Date
- D. Other Method: via comparative market analysis to a maximum amount of 25%

For the purposes of this rent review clause, the following terms have the following meanings:

CPI means the rent will be determined in accordance with the following formula:

CPI Rent = R x (C/P)

Where R = the Rent payable immediately prior to the relevant Rent Review Date

C = the Current CPI (for the most recent quarter prior to the Rent Review Date with respect to which the CPI has been published)

P = the Previous CPI (for the quarter immediately before the last Rent Review Date or, if there has been no previous rent review, the date of the commencement of the tenancy).

Percentage Increase means the reviewed rental will be the rent applicable immediately before the rent review date increased by the percentage specified above on that rent review date.

Other Method means the Rent applicable immediately before the rent review date will be increased by that method on that rent review date.

- 2.5. If this tenancy agreement is for a fixed term and the tenancy reverts to a periodic tenancy pursuant to section 76C of the Act, then the periodic rent upon expiry of the fixed term will be, for a sum being $ via comparative market; max 25% [or insert a method of calculating the rent] (Increased Rent),

PROVIDED THAT, in order for the Increased Rent to apply, the lessor must give the tenant at least 60 days' notice of the Increased Rent and the commencement date for the Increased Rent must be no sooner than 12 months after the last rent increase.

- Pets 2.6. The tenant must not keep any animal, bird or fish in or about the premises, unless that pet is listed in Part A of this residential tenancy agreement or without the prior written permission of the Lessor.
- 2.7. The tenant must not keep any dangerous dogs as defined under the Dog Act 1976 and Dog Regulations 2002- Dogo Argentine (Argentinian Fighting Dog), Fila Brasileiro (Brazilian Fighting Dog), Japanese Tosa, American Pit Bull Terrier, Pit Bull Terrier or any dog of a mixed breed which visibly contains any of these breeds, without the prior written consent of the Lessor.

- Pet Security Bond 2.8. If the lessor permits the tenant to keep pets at the premises as specified in Part A, or as agreed in writing after the commencement of the residential tenancy agreement, or as required by the Commissioner, and if any of those pets are capable of carrying parasites that can affect humans, then the tenant shall deposit with the property manager a Pet Security Bond of the amount referred to in Part A. At the end of the tenancy that Pet Bond may be applied to the cost of fumigation of the premises. In this clause, the term "pet" does not include an assistance animal.

- Smoking 2.9. Unless otherwise agreed to by the lessor in writing, smoking is not permitted inside the residential buildings on the premises.

- Services 2.10. The tenant must notify the electricity and gas utilities (if applicable) of the tenant's occupation of the premises.

- Telephone 2.11. The lessor makes no representations about the availability of telephone lines, internet lines or any other communications services to the premises. The tenant must make his or her own enquiries regarding the availability, cost and/or installation of those services. The tenant is allowed to install and/or attach cabling, telephone lines and/or communications lines to the premises provided no damage is done to the premises in installing, attaching and/or removing them and the tenant pays all costs associated with that installation, attachment and/or removal.

If at the end of the residential tenancy the lessor requests the cabling and/or communications lines to be removed, the tenant must remove them and make good any damage caused by that removal. If any cabling, telephone lines and/or communications lines installed or attached by the tenant are left remaining at the premises or attached to the premises at the end of the tenancy, with the lessor's consent, those items become the property of the lessor.

Strata Company	2.12. The Tenant agrees to comply with all the rules and by-laws governing the use of the Premises and the common areas issued by the Strata Company, Community Corporation or their Council.
Tenant to Keep Premises Clean	2.13. In accordance with the tenant's obligation to keep the premises in a reasonable state of cleanliness pursuant to section 38(1)(a) of the Act, the tenant must keep the premises in a clean and sanitary condition and free from dirt, oils, grease, insects, and vermin.  2.14. The tenant is responsible for the eradication of insect and vermin infestations caused by the tenant's activities or lack of cleanliness.
Chattels	2.15. Except for matters required to be attended to by the lessor as part of its obligations to maintain the premises in a reasonable state of repair (having regard to its age and character), the tenant agrees to keep the premises, including all floors, floor coverings, skirting boards, walls, ceilings, windows (including glass), window treatments, doors (including glass if any), light fittings, fixtures and fittings, and chattels included in the tenancy agreement (as set out in any attached Inventory) in the same condition as they were in at the commencement of this lease and in accordance with the Property Condition Report (fair wear and tear excepted).
Smoke Alarms and RCDs	2.16. The tenant must take reasonable steps to regularly check and test whether all smoke alarms and residual current devices on the premises are in good working order. If any smoke alarm or residual current device is not at any time in good working order, the tenant must give the lessor immediate notice in writing of that fact. Note: Nothing in this clause lessens the obligations upon lessors in relation to smoke alarms under the Building Regulations 2012 and/or in relation to residual current devices under the Electricity Regulations, 1947.
Light Globes	2.17. The tenant agrees to replace all broken light globes and fluorescent light tubes and save for matters required to be attended to by the lessor as part of its obligations to maintain the premises in a reasonable state of repair (having regard to its age and character), ensure all light globes and fluorescent light tubes are kept in good working order.
Gardens	2.18. The tenant must attend to the garden, lawns, lawn edges, hedges, shrubs and trees so that they are kept in the same condition as at the commencement of this lease as described in the Property Condition Report, to water and fertilise them regularly and adequately, to keep all the grounds clean and tidy and free from rubbish, to keep the flower beds and lawns free of weeds, and not to remove or cut down any plants, trees or shrubs.
Swimming Pool Spa	2.19. If the premises includes a swimming pool or spa, the tenant must keep the pool or spa and any associated equipment in a properly treated and clean condition and observe all legal requirements relating to pools and/or spas during the period of this lease. The tenant must not drain the pool without the lessor's written consent.  If a tenant becomes aware of any matters that may render any swimming pool or spa on the premises unsafe, the tenant must report those matters to the lessor as soon as practicable. Further, tenants should note that they are entitled to notify local governments about matters relating to the safety of swimming pools or spas.
Damage and Disrepair	2.20. The parties' rights and obligations with respect to urgent repairs are set out in section 43 of the Act and clauses 22 and 23 of Part B of the Residential Tenancy Agreement. Obligations upon the tenant to advise the lessor or property manager as soon as practicable if any damage occurs to the premises are set out in section 38 of the Act and clause 18.5 of the Residential Tenancy Agreement. The tenant agrees to make all reasonable efforts to report to the Lessor all damage and any state of disrepair to the premises, as soon as practical after the same occurs. Failure to do so will render the tenant liable for all costs and/or losses incurred by the lessor as a result of such failure to report (examples of the types of incidents that might give rise to a need to make a report as soon as practical include, but are not limited to, a broken window, a kitchen cupboard door falling off, a cracked shower screen or a burst water pipe on the leased premises or a machine, such as a pool pump, that forms part of the leased premises, being in need of repair). The tenant may be liable to pay the lessor damages if the lessor suffers loss as a consequence of the tenant failing or delaying to make a report.  2.21. The tenant must pay for any damages caused by the tenant's breach of the residential tenancy agreement including, but not limited to, the cost of repairing any damage that is caused by, or is attributable to, an act or omission by the tenant or anyone who is lawfully at the premises, contrary to clause 18 and/or 19 of Part B.
Excess on Insurance	2.22. 2.22.1 If the lessor elects to claim on the lessor's insurance for any loss or damage that arises or is attributable to an act or omission by the tenant or the tenant's visitors, or people associated with the tenant, that amounts to a breach of this residential tenancy agreement or would otherwise leave the tenant liable to the lessor for damages and the lessor is successful in relation to recovering any money for such damage, then the tenant will be liable to the lessor to pay any "excess" on any such insurance claim.  2.22.2 The tenant acknowledges that any damage caused to the premises or any chattels on the premises by a water bed is not normally covered by insurance.  2.22.3 This clause does not limit the liability of the tenant for acts of negligence, other torts or breaches of this residential tenancy agreement and this clause does not require the lessor to make any claim under any insurance policy held by the lessor.
Alterations to the Premises	2.23. Notwithstanding which election is selected with respect to the right of the tenant to affix and remove fixtures in Part A, the tenant must not place any sign on, or paint the premises, use blue tack or any other adhesive material, or drive any nails or screws into or deface any part of the Premises except as allowed pursuant to the Residential Tenancies Act 1987 .

Objectionable Behaviour	2.24. The tenant must not interfere with or cause or permit interference with the reasonable peace, comfort or privacy of any person who resides in the immediate vicinity of the premises.
Water beds, Aquarium, Swimming Pool, Spa	2.25. The tenant must not without the lessor's consent install any water bed, aquarium, swimming pool, or spa on the premises. The tenant is liable to the lessor for any costs or losses resulting from any damage caused to the premises (including any of the lessor's chattels, fixtures, fittings and/or furniture) by the escape of water from any waterbed, aquarium, swimming pool, or spa if the escape of the water is caused by the tenant breaching this Residential Tenancy Agreement or breaching the terms of the Act.
Laundry	2.26. The tenant must not hang or display any laundry or other articles on any balcony or verandah.
Indemnify the Lessor	2.27. The tenant agrees to indemnify the lessor against any loss sustained by the lessor or any sum the lessor might at any time be liable to pay, as a result of: 2.27.1 any damage to the premises or any furniture or chattels belonging to the lessor; 2.27.2 any claim made against the lessor, whether in relation to property damage or personal injury; or 2.27.3 any other matter whatsoever, arising from any breach of clauses 19 and/or 20 of Part B of this residential tenancy agreement.
Inspections	2.28. Provided that the lessor has complied with clauses 25 to 29 of Part B of this residential tenancy agreement, if the tenant is not present at the time specified in any notice for the inspection provided by the lessor, the tenant agrees that the lessor or the lessor's Property Manager or their employees may enter the premises.
Keys and Electronic Keys	2.29. Subject to the provisions of section 45 of the Act and clause 38 of Part B of this residential tenancy agreement, the lessor will supply to the tenant one set of Keys that enable access to the premises. 2.30. Should the tenant require an additional set(s) of the Keys or the existing set to be recoded (due to the fault of the tenant), then any cost associated with an additional set(s) or recoding will be borne by the tenant and must be paid for by the tenant prior to receiving the additional set(s) of the Keys. 2.31. Should the tenant lose possession of the Keys, then the tenant will be responsible for all costs and expenses associated with replacing the Keys, or gaining access to the premises. 2.32. The lessor will replace Keys and arrange for access to the premises arising from lost Keys only during normal business hours.
Granting of a Licence (Airbnb)	2.33. The tenant must not: (a) grant any licence or right to reside or stay at the premises or any part of it to any person or entity as part of a commercial arrangement; or (b) advertise or list the premises on any internet or other site for a licence or right to reside or stay at the premises

3. DEFAULT, INCLUDING WRONGFUL TERMINATION OF LEASE (i.e. "BREAK LEASE")

- 3.1 If the tenant:
- (a) terminates this lease, otherwise than in accordance with clause 44 of Part B of this residential tenancy agreement or the provisions of the Act, before the end of the tenancy period referred to in Part A (commonly known as a "break lease"); or

(b) the tenant otherwise breaches the lease and/or does not comply with the tenant's obligations under this lease,
- then the tenant is liable to pay any damages and losses to the lessor that the lessor suffers or will suffer as a result of the tenant's breach! The lessor must endeavour to reasonably mitigate the lessor's damages and losses.

4. END OF TENANCY

Swimming Pool and Spa Equipment at the end of tenancy	4.1 If at the commencement of the lease the lessor provided pool chemicals to the tenant, then a comparable quantity of the same chemicals are to be provided by the tenant to the lessor at the end of the lease.
	4.2 The tenant must secure all portable pool cleaning equipment in a locked area on the premises at the end of the tenancy.
Movement of Chattels	4.3 The tenant must return all fixtures, furniture, chattels, household effects and all other items described in either the Property Condition Report or the attached Inventory to the original positions described in those documents.
Cleaning of Carpets	4.4 As part of the tenant's obligations under clause 19.6 of Part B of this Residential Tenancy Agreement, the tenant agrees upon vacation of the premises to have all carpets professionally cleaned (at the tenant's expense) and to supply to the Property Manager a receipt as evidence that the carpets have been cleaned.

5. ELECTRONIC SERVICE

If a Tenant Lessor or Property Manager listed in Part A of the Lease has consented to notices documents and information being given by email or facsimile, then they may provide an additional email or facsimile address to the other party for the giving of notices documents and information.

<sup>1</sup> Examples of the types of costs that might give rise to a need to make a break lease claim include, but are not limited to rent, advertising expenses associated with finding a new tenant and the unexpired portion of any leasing fee charged by the property manager to the lessor and also property maintenance such as lawn mowing and watering. These costs may be charged until a new tenant moves in or the original tenancy period expires. The lessor must endeavour to reasonably mitigate the lessor's damages and losses.

6. DEFINITIONS AND INTERPRETATION

- 6.1 If any provision of this lease is invalid, unenforceable or illegal, then that provision may be severed and the remainder of this lease will continue to be effective.
- 6.2 In this lease, unless otherwise required by the context or subject matter:
"Keys" means all keys and electronic keys that permit access to the premises, to common property associated with a strata lot, community lot, or to car bays associated with the premises.
"Inventory" means a list of the lessor's furniture contained in the premises at the commencement of the lease.
- 6.3 Any reference in this lease to the "lessor" doing anything shall mean and include it being done by the lessor's Property Manager.
- 6.4 Where either the tenant or the lessor comprise more than one person, the obligations to be performed in this lease are binding upon such two or more persons jointly and severally.

7. INFORMATION COLLECTION NOTICE PRIVACY ACT, 1988
AUSTRALIAN PRIVACY PRINCIPLE 5

The Lessor's property manager (whose contact details appear in Part A of this form) collects the personal information provided in this form in compliance with the provisions of the Privacy Act, 1988 and the Australian Privacy Principles. Personal information collected by the property manager through the management of the tenancy including, but not limited to the Property Condition Report is necessary to manage the tenancy. The personal information collected by the property manager in this residential tenancy agreement, in the Property Condition Report and during the period of the management of the tenancy is collected to be used in managing the tenancy, to enable the property manager to provide the services and benefits the subject of this agreement and to enable the property manager to conduct its business. This includes the uploading of information to third party websites such as reiwa.com which may themselves use and/or disclose that information to the data collection agencies such as RP Data Pty Ltd. The tenant, by signing this agreement, consents to that collection and use. Further details regarding the purposes for which the information is collected, the disclosures that are usually made of personal information collected by the property manager, the situations where the property manager is required to collect information by law, and any disclosure of information that may be made by the property manager overseas, can be obtained from the more detailed collection notice on the property manager's website. The property manager's privacy policy may also be accessed on that website. If the information collected in this form is not provided, the property manager may not be able to provide its services as effectively. Individuals who wish to access or correct information held about them or who wish to make any complaint regarding privacy should contact the property manager's privacy officer.

8. ADDITIONAL TENANTS

- 8.1 If there are more than four tenants then the extra tenants must sign the Annexure - Additional Tenants, and it forms part of this lease.

This page is intentionally left blank but additional terms between tenant and lessor may be inserted and included in Part C by agreement between the parties. REIWA has not endorsed or approved the further additional terms.

Annexure A:

1.CARPETS: The tenants agree upon vacation of the Premises, to have all carpets professionally cleaned (at the tenants expense) and to supply to the Agent a receipt as evidence that the carpets have been cleaned.

2.NOTICE: The tenants are aware that they are required to give 30 days notice of their intention to vacate prior to the expiry of their fixed term lease.

3.POOLS: The tenant shall not without the Owner's prior written permission install any spa's/swimming pools (including inflatables) on the premises. IF permission is granted, the Tenant is responsible to supply and maintain proper fencing regulations as per Council & Surf Lifesaving guidelines (including around inflatables) during their tenancy as responsibility is borne by the Tenant. The Owner and Agent will not be held responsible or accountable for any matters arising from non-compliance.

4.POOLS/SPAS: If the premises includes a swimming pool or spa the tenant must keep the pool or spa and any associated equipment in a properly treated and clean condition and observe all legal requirements relating to pools and/or spas during the period of the lease. The Tenant is responsible for payment and upkeep with chemicals (unless otherwise stated). The tenant must not drain the pool without the lessor's consent. The tenant acknowledges a pool report must be provided to the Agency upon vacating at the tenants expenses which confirms the pool as chemically balanced.

5.SMOKE DETECTORS: The Tenant/s are to ensure all smoke detectors in the home have the back-up batteries replaced at the cost to the tenant when required and all smoke alarms are operational at all times ie. Covers are left on and alarm/s are not dismantled. The Lessor is responsible for ensuring the smoke alarm/s are not more than 10 years old and are hard-wired to the electrical mains as per legislation. Tenants agree to report any unidentified fault to the Property Manager immediately.

6.KEYS: The Tenant/s acknowledge ALL keys including any copies made, and the Realmark key tag must be returned to the Owner/Agent when vacating. Failure to return all keys may result in the locks being changed with the costs to be borne by the Tenant/s. NB: When vacating, the Tenant acknowledges that Rent will be charged on a daily basis until all keys are returned to the office.

7.RE-INSPECTION: If a re-inspection is required to be carried out after a routine inspection was conducted due to a Breach of tenant obligations within this Lease Agreement (ie. premises was not in a clean or sanitary condition as an example) the Tenant acknowledges the re-inspection will be invoiced to the Tenant to reimburse the owner - at cost.

8.INSURANCE: The tenant shall not do or permit anything to be done or bring onto or keep on the premises which may invalidate or prejudice the conditions of any insurance policies relating to the premises that which may cause an increase to the insurance premiums available.

9.SMOKING: The Tenant/s acknowledge no smoking is permitted inside the property by either Tenant's or guests to prevent discolouration and/or staining occurring. Smoke damage caused to the property will be rectified at the Tenant's expense.

10.DEFAULT: If the tenant: (a) terminates the lease, otherwise than in accordance with clause 37 of Part B of this residential tenancy agreement or pursuant to the provisions of the Act, before the end of the tenancy period referred to in Part A or (b) the Tenant/s otherwise breach the lease, then the Tenant is liable to pay any damages and/or loss to the lessor that the lessor suffers or will suffer as a result of the Tenant/s breach. The lessor must endeavour to reasonably mitigate the lessors damages and losses.

11.COUNCIL BINS: At the termination of the lease the tenant must place the Sulo bin in the storeroom empty and clean.

11.1 The tenant acknowledges that they are responsible for the collection of the bins from kerbside, and the subsequent disposal of its contents, on collection day; and further, that the bin must be removed from said kerbside immediately after or as soon as is possible on the day of collection. The tenant acknowledges they are responsible for all costs associated with the replacement of a bin should the bin/s that were initially supplied at beginning of tenancy are stolen, damaged, or lost as a result of tenant negligence.

12.RETICULATION: The Tenant is aware that they are responsible for the general upkeep of the reticulation, monitoring, timing and seasonable adjustments, and ensure all sprinkler heads are free from sand, plant matter, ants and debris (if applicable). Should the sprinkler/drippers break during the tenancy due to not being maintained as a tenant responsibility ie. Grass and debris build up, damage due to lawnmowers/grass cutters/whippersnippers and/or pets, it is tenant duty to repair at their cost. Should at any time the reticulation system not be operational, it is the tenants responsibility to ensure upkeep of lawn and gardens by hand watering for a reasonable period of time until the system is repaired.

13.WATERING DAYS: If the property does not have an automatic reticulation controller and watering is completed using a hose connected to the mains, then the Tenant is required at all times to water gardens and lawns adequately and within Water Corporation Guidelines and restrictions. Watering equipment (if not supplied by the Lessor will be the responsibility of the tenant.) The tenant will be responsible for all fines/fees imposed by the Water Corporation (Infringement Notice) in relation to non-compliance of nominated water days and times.

14.FIREARMS: Firearms are not to be kept at the premises unless written permission from the lessor has been given.

15.PETS: The tenant acknowledges that should a pet live at the property and be a pet that is capable of carrying parasites that can affect humans, the property must be fumigated at the tenants expense at the end of the tenancy. The tenant can arrange the fumigation themselves where a receipt must be produced as evidence at the time of handing in all the property keys. Alternatively the agency will arrange the fumigation and the costs will be deducted from the tenants pet bond.

16.AIR-CONDITIONING: The tenant acknowledges that the upkeep and cleaning of any and all air conditioning filters located at the property is solely their responsibility throughout the duration of the lease agreement. Filters are to be cleaned and up-kept regularly and debris removed with water.

17.GAS BOTTLES: Should the property be serviced by Gas Bottles, the tenant acknowledges and accepts the responsibility of only connecting a compliant gas bottle that meets regulations for use on a residential property. BBQ Gas Bottles do not meet the regulations. Should a non-compliant gas bottle be found to be connected; a plumber would be sent to rectify at the cost of the tenant, the owners insurance policy may be voided, and any damage or liability is the responsibility of the tenant.

Email Fraud Prevention Notice

**Due to the recent increase in scams and intercepted emails, as an extra safety precaution please telephone your agent's office to confirm their bank account details are correct BEFORE sending any funds by EFT or Direct Debit to the agent.****

Always independently verify your agent's bank account details that you have received BEFORE sending any money.

Criminals/hackers are targeting email accounts of various parties involved in real estate transactions (e.g. conveyancers, mortgage brokers, and real estate agents).

Emails can be intercepted and resent to say that either: (a) the bank account where money for the transaction has to be deposited has changed and giving new details (which are the fraudsters account details); or (b) the banking details (which the fraudsters have changed to their account details).

These emails are convincing and sophisticated. Among other concerns, this has led to fraudulent instructions being used to divert funds to the criminal's bank account.

These emails may look like legitimate emails from the proper party. If you receive an email regarding instructions that contain any suspicious information, do not click on any links that may be in the email and do not reply.

REIWA strongly recommends that Buyers, Sellers, and their respective conveyancers and others working on a transaction, refrain from placing any sensitive personal and financial information in an email, directly or through an email attachment.

When there is a need to share numbers, bank accounts, credit card numbers, EFT instructions or similar sensitive information, REIWA strongly recommends using more secure means, such as providing the information in person, over the phone, or through secure mail or courier services, whenever possible.

In addition, before a Buyer or Seller transfer any funds to any party (including the Seller or the Seller's agent, conveyancer or mortgage broker), personally call them to confirm that the information is legitimate and correct (i.e. confirm the BSB and account number).

A Buyer and Seller should call the recipient of the funds at a number that is independently obtained (e.g. from the Contract, the recipient's website, etc.) and not use the phone number in the email in order to be sure that the recipient is a legitimate party.
